

HONORING OFFICER RODNEY
CHAMBERS

HON. CORRINE BROWN

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 4, 2004

Ms. CORRINE BROWN of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay honor to a true American hero, Officer Rodney Chambers, who without thought for his own safety, risked his life to save others from harm. Officer Chambers has been chosen to receive the prestigious Officer of the Year Award from the Amtrak Police Department because of his selfless heroism and courage, and I am proud to join them in saluting his bravery.

On June 9, 2003, Officer Chambers was on patrol in Washington's Union Station when he was dispatched to respond to a call for service from Union Station. Security reporting that a male put a grenade in a trash receptacle. Officer Chambers responded to First Street where a Union Station security officer identified the suspect. Capitol Police Officer Michael DeCarlo joined Officer Chambers in pursuit of the suspect. Officer Chambers came upon the suspect and instructed him to put his hands on the wall. The suspect removed a piece of clothing that he was holding and revealed a grenade. He then pulled the pin and attempted to drop the grenade.

Officer Chambers reacted immediately by pinning the suspect against the wall while wrestling the grenade away from him, holding the spoon and fuse from priming. At this time, Officer DeCarlo arrived on the scene and assisted in controlling the suspect.

As the suspect was being taken into custody by police officers, Officer Chambers along with his Sergeant removed himself to a safe distance from the area of onlookers while continuing to hold down the spoon on the grenade. Officer Chambers maintained his position for approximately 15 minutes while waiting for the arrival of the EOD team. During this period of time, a search revealed a second grenade.

The Capitol Police EOD responded and placed both grenades in an isolation chamber. Ultimately, both grenades were found to be inactive and filled with a gel-like substance. However, during the period of time Officer Chambers spent with the grenade he had no way of knowing this.

Officer Chambers was awarded the Medal of Honor from the Amtrak Police Department on November 10, 2003; a Resolution from Amtrak's Board of Directors on June 12, 2003; the Officer of the Month Award from the National Law Enforcement Memorial Fund; and the Department of Transportation Award for heroism from the U.S. Secretary of Transportation, Norman Y. Mineta and Federal Railroad Administrator Allan Rutter on October 21, 2003.

COMMENDING TEACHERS FROM NORTHWEST INDIANA

HON. PETER J. VISCLOSKY

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 4, 2004

Mr. VISCLOSKY. Mr. Speaker, it is my distinct honor to commend seven dedicated teachers from Northwest Indiana who have been voted outstanding educators by their peers for the 2003–2004 school year. These individuals, Yvonne Stoll, Laura Cullen, Jeremy Walker, Sandra Sidock, David Markley, Linda Scheffer, and Valerie Giacomini will be presented with the Crystal Apple Award at a reception sponsored by the Indiana State Teachers Association. This prestigious event will take place at the Andorra Restaurant and Banquets in Schererville, Indiana, on Tuesday, May 4, 2004.

Yvonne Stoll, from the North Newton School Corporation, has been a role model, an inspiration to her students, and an outstanding professional for more than 30 years. Yvonne, a dedicated kindergarten school teacher, knows the importance of developing creative thinking skills in her students. In addition to Yvonne's teaching abilities, she has made tireless efforts to further the education of kindergarten students through her active participation in organizations such as: the Indiana Association for the Education of Young Children, the Reading Council, and NNEA/ISTA/NEA.

Laura Cullen has been teaching kindergarten in the Hanover Community School Corporation for nearly 20 years. She is a loyal and enthusiastic person who has a passion to teach her kindergarten students. Laura's students graduate from her class with strong reading and writing skills which provide a solid foundation for a lifetime of learning. She is actively involved in the Jane Ball Literacy for Life Team, Grade Level Chairperson at Jane Ball Elementary, Teacher Assistance Team, Climate Committee, and the Public Law 221 Committee.

Jeremy Walker is known for his ability to connect with students in a way few other teachers are able to duplicate. Jeremy teaches Latin in the Crown Point Community School Corporation and is an integral person in his school's Latin program. A testament to Jeremy's teaching abilities, his students recently won the Indiana State Sweepstakes, establishing his Latin club as the best in Indiana. Jeremy truly has an outstanding teaching ability, while his dedication to his profession and to his students is equally outstanding.

Sandra Sidock has 30 years of experience in teaching and tutoring students in mathematics. At the Lake Central School Corporation, Sandra instilled in her students the skills needed to be successful at the next level. Although many students benefited from Sandra's knowledge, the students who needed extra assistance could always rely on her. Sandra incorporates the Legos, Cuisenaire Rods, and other techniques into her teaching curriculum to benefit the students who need extra guidance.

David Markley has taught music for seven years at Highland High School. The love and passion David has for music, both personally and professionally, is demonstrated through the creativity and enthusiasm that he projects. He not only inspires his students, but also the teachers at Highland High School, the parishioners of Gloria Dei Lutheran Church, and many others in Northwest Indiana.

Linda Scheffer has been nurturing young minds at Munster High School for the past 32 years. Her enthusiasm for the subject matter, as well as her teaching style, has withstood the test of time. Linda makes learning an enjoyable experience, for she blends her creative spirit and her willingness to experiment with new ideas and techniques to better foment home economic concepts in the minds of her students. Linda's compassion for others is exhibited by her thoughtfulness towards both students and teachers.

Valerie Giacomini has been a great asset to the Tri-Creek School Corporation throughout her years of teaching. She is conscientious about having her students meet the standards expected of them. Valerie's strong work ethic as a teacher allows her to make an extraordinary effort to provide the best possible education for her students. Valerie is a continuous source of strength and enthusiasm for her students, parents, and colleagues.

Mr. Speaker, I ask you and my distinguished colleagues to join me in commending these outstanding educators on their receipt of the 2003–2004 Crystal Apple Award. The years of hard work they have put forth in shaping the minds and futures of Northwest Indiana's young people is a true inspiration to us all.

RECOGNIZING THE TIRELESS
WORK OF THE DURAND PATRIOTS

HON. MIKE ROGERS

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 4, 2004

Mr. ROGERS of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the work of some great Americans in Michigan's Eighth District, the Durand Patriots. The Durand Patriots are a non-profit organization working hard to support our fighting troops abroad by providing them with some of the comforts of home.

Since October, 2001, the Durand Patriots have shipped over 500 packages to active military personnel. Last year alone, the Durand Patriots raised $25,000 for the purchase of convenience items and holiday gifts to be sent to our troops. In their latest undertaking, the Durand Patriots came to the rescue of a local soldier, CW3 Mike Mogg, when he lost all of his possessions in a fire in his Baghdad living quarters. The Durand Patriots sent over fifty boxes of supplies to Chief Warrant Officer Mogg and his unit to replace their lost possessions.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing the support of the Durand Patriots to our armed forces. Their commitment to helping boost military morale by ensuring that our fighting men and women have the comforts of home while they protect America, showcases the best of the American spirit.

DO NOT DISMANTLE TITLE IX

HON. DIANE E. WATSON

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 4, 2004

Ms. WATSON. Mr. Speaker, the Bush Administration's record on education has been nothing but disastrous, and as a former member of the Los Angeles Unified School District board, I am especially dismayed by the Administration's relentless attack on Title IX, one of the most effective laws designed to expand educational opportunities for countless women.
